This Beneficial Ownership Addendum shall be attached to and made a part of the original Merchant Agreement between Bank and the undersigned.

To help the government fight financial crime, Federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption, fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute these crimes.

By signing below, I attest that I have accurately provided the name, address, date of birth and Social Security Number (SSN) for the following individuals (i.e. the beneficial owners):

(iii) Each individual, if any, who owns directly or indirectly, 25 percent or more of the equity interests of the legal entity customer (e.g., each natural person that owns 25 percent or more of the shares of a corporation); AND

(iv) An individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity customer (e.g., a Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer).

The number of individuals that satisfy this definition of "beneficial owner" may vary. Under section (i), depending on the factual circumstances, up to four individuals (but as few as zero) may need to be identified. Regardless of the number of individuals identified under section (i), you must provide the identifying information of one individual under section (ii). It is possible that in some circumstances the same individual might be identified under both sections (e.g., the President of Acme, Inc. who also holds a 30% equity interest). Thus, a completed form will contain the identifying information of at least one individual (under section (ii)), and up to five individuals (i.e., one individual under section

(ii) and four 25 percent equity holders under section (i)).

The Security Procedure is set forth in Schedule B attached hereto and is referred to herein as the "Security Procedure." Company and TRX shall comply with the Security Procedure. The Security Procedure has been agreed to by the Company based upon communications with TRX; alternative security procedures offered to the Company; and security procedures in general used by similarly situated companies and TRX. As a result of and based upon the foregoing, the Company expressly and unconditionally agrees to be bound by any payment order, whether or not authorized, issued in its name or accepted by TRX in good faith and in compliance with the Security Procedure.

(b) Company is strictly responsible to establish and maintain the Security Procedure to safeguard against unauthorized transmissions. Company represents and warrants that no individual will be allowed to initiate transfers in absence of proper supervision and safeguards and agrees to

(b) If an Entry (or request for cancellation or amendment of an Entry) received by TRX was transmitted or authorized by Company, Company shall pay TRX the amount of the Entry, whether or not TRX complied with the Security Procedure with respect to that Entry and whether or not that Entry was erroneous in any respect or that error would have been detected if TRX had complied with the Security Procedure.

5. Processing, Transmittal and Settlement by TRX

TRX shall have no liability for Company's failure to meet requirements specified in Section 5 (b) clauses (x), (y) or (z).

6. On-Ups Entries

Except as provided in Section 7, Rejection of Entries, in the case of an Entry received for credit to an account maintained with TRX (an "On-Ups Entry"), TRX shall credit the Receiver's account of such Entry on the Effective Entry Date contained in such Entry, provided the requirements set forth in clauses (x) (y) or (z) of Section 5(b) are met. If either of those requirements are not met, TRX shall use reasonable efforts to credit the Receiver's account in the amount of such Entry no later than the next business day following such Effective Entry Date.

7. Rejection of Entries

Notices of rejection shall be effective when given. TRX shall have no liability to Company by reason of the rejection of any such Entry or the fact that such notice is not given at an earlier time than that provided for herein.

8. Cancellation or Amendment by Company

However, if such request complies with the Security Procedure for the cancellation of data, TRX shall use reasonable efforts to act on a request by Company for cancellation of an Entry/file prior to transmitting it to the ACH or, in the case of an On-Ups Entry, prior to crediting a Receiver's account, but shall have no liability if such cancellation is not affected. Company shall reimburse TRX for any expenses, losses, or damages TRX may incur in effecting or attempting to effect Company's request for the reversal of an Entry.

9. Notice of Returned Entries

TRX shall notify Company by (i) telephone, or (ii) electronic transmission, of the receipt of a returned Entry from the ACH no later than one business

11. The Account

TRX may, without prior notice or demand, obtain payment of any amount due to it under this Agreement by debiting the account(s) of Company identified in Schedule D attached hereto (the "Account"), and shall credit the Account for any amount received by TRX by reason of the return of an Entry transmitted by TRX for which TRX has previously received payment from Company and which the Company is otherwise entitled to, subject to all rights of TRX in Section 12 and elsewhere in this Agreement. Such credit shall be made as of the day of such receipt by TRX. Company shall maintain the Account with TRX at all times during the term of this Agreement, which Account shall, at all times, remain in good standing. The Company shall at all times maintain in the Account immediately available funds sufficient to cover all credit Entries initiated by it. In the event there are not sufficient available funds in the Account to cover Company's obligations under this Agreement, Company agrees that TRX may debit any account maintained by Company with TRX or any affiliate of TRX, and that TRX may set off against any amount it owes to Company, in order to obtain payment of Company's obligations under this Agreement.

12. Account Reconciliation

The periodic statement issued by the TRX of the Company's Account will reflect Entries credited and debited to the Company's Account. The Company agrees to notify the TRX promptly in writing of any discrepancy between Company's records and the information in the periodic statement. If Company fails to notify TRX of any discrepancy within thirty (30) days of receipt of a periodic statement containing such information, Company agrees that TRX shall not be liable for any losses resulting from Company's failure to give such notice or any loss of interest or any interest equivalent with respect to the Entry shown of such periodic statement. If Company fails to notify TRX of any such discrepancy within thirty (30) days of receipt of such periodic statement, the Company shall be and is hereby deemed to be precluded from asserting any and all claims against the TRX and does hereby waive such claims including claim for interest, costs or attorney's fees. Furthermore, the Company shall be liable to TRX for all damages, expenses and losses incurred by the TRX (including attorney's fees and costs) as a result of such failure.

Without limiting the foregoing and without respect to each and every Entry initiated by the Company, the Company represents and warrants to TRX and agrees that (a) each Entry is accurate, is timely, and has been duly authorized by the party whose account will be credited or debited, and otherwise complies with the Rules or applicable law or regulation; (b) each debit Entry is for a sum which, on the settlement date with respect to it, will be owing to the Company from the party whose account will be debited, is for a sum specified by such party to be paid to the Company, or is a correction of a previously transmitted erroneous credit Entry; (c) the Company has complied with all prenotification requirements of the Rules; (d) the

AGREEMENT

Company has and will comply with the terms of the Electronic Funds Transfer Act, if applicable, Uniform Commercial Code Article 4A, if applicable, as well as Federal Reserve Board Regulation J, if applicable, and shall otherwise perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations including the laws and regulations administered by the OFAC; and (e) Company shall be bound by and comply with the Rules as in effect from time to time, including, without limitation, the provision making payment of an Entry by Receiving Depository Financial Institution to the Receiver provisional until receipt by Receiving Depository Financial Institution of final settlement for such Entry. Company specifically acknowledges that it has received notice of the Rules with regard to provisional payment and of the fact that, if such settlement is not received, the Receiving Depository TRX shall be entitled to a refund from the Receiver of the amount credited and Company shall not be deemed to have paid the Receiver the amount of the Entry.

The Company agrees to periodically provide financial information or authorization to verify the Company's creditworthiness by an alternative means as may be deemed necessary by TRX.

The Company does hereby agree to and shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend, without limitation, TRX from and against any and all demands, claims, losses, liability or expense (including attorney's fee and costs) relating to, arising out of or involving any breach of the representations and warranties or set forth in this Agreement. The Company does hereby agree that TRX shall be by covenant indemnified, held harmless and defended by the Company, and shall be shielded from and against any and all claims for damages, of any nature and from any source, arising out of, relating to, or involving any breach of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement by the Company, or the failure of the Company to comply with the terms of this Agreement, the Rules, or any and all other applicable laws or regulations. The provisions of this Section 13 shall survive termination of this Agreement.

14. TRX Responsibilities; Liability; Limitations on Liability; Indemnity

(a) In the performance of the services required by this Agreement, TRX shall be entitled to rely solely on the information, representations, and warranties provided by Company pursuant to this Agreement, and shall not be responsible for the accuracy or completeness thereof. TRX shall be responsible only for performing the services expressly provided for in this Agreement and shall be liable only for its gross negligence or willful misconduct in performing those services. TRX shall not be responsible for Company's acts or omissions (including without limitation the amount, accuracy, timeliness of transmittal or authorization of any Entry received from Company) or those of any other person, including without limitation any Federal Reserve TRX, Automated Clearing House or transmission or communications facility, and Receiver or Receiving Depository Financial Institution (including without limitation the return of an Entry by such Receiver or Receiving Depository Financial Institution), and no such person shall be deemed TRX's agent. Company agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless TRX against any loss, liability or expense (including attorneys fees and expenses) resulting from or arising out of any claim of any person that the TRX is responsible for any act or omission of Company or any other person described in this Section 14(a).

(b) TRX shall be liable only for Company's actual damages incurred directly by TRX's gross negligence or willful misconduct; in no event shall TRX be liable for any consequential, special, incidental, punitive or indirect loss or damage which Company may incur or suffer in connection with this Agreement, whether or not the likelihood of such damages was known or contemplated by TRX and regardless of the legal or equitable theory of liability which Company may assert, including, without limitation, loss or damage from subsequent wrongful dishonor resulting from TRX's acts or omissions pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing provisions, TRX shall be excused from failing to act or delay in acting if such failure or delay is caused by legal constraint, interruption or transmission or communication facilities, equipment failure, war, emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond TRX's control. In addition, TRX shall be excused from failing to transmit or delay in transmitting an Entry if such transmittal would result in TRX exceeding any limitation upon its intra-day net funds position established pursuant to present or future Federal Reserve guidelines or in TRX's reasonable judgment otherwise violating any provisions of any present or future risk control program of the Federal Reserve or any law or rule or regulation of any other US governmental regulatory authority.

(d) Subject to the foregoing limitations and any other applicable limitations set forth in this Agreement, TRX's liability for loss of interest resulting from its error or delay shall be calculated by using a rate equal to the average Federal Funds rate at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York for the period involved. At TRX's option, payment of such interest may be made by crediting the Account resulting from or arising out of any claim of any person that TRX is responsible for any act or omission of Company or any other person described in Section 14(a). The provisions of this Section 14 shall survive termination of this agreement.

15. Inconsistency of Name and Account Number

Company acknowledges and agrees that, if any Entry describes the Receiver inconsistently by name and account number, payment of the Entry transmitted by TRX to the Receiving Depository Financial Institution may be made by the Receiving Depository Financial Institution (or by TRX in the case of an On-Us Entry) on the basis of the account number supplied by the Company, even if it identifies a person different from the named Receiver, and that Company's obligation to pay the amount of the Entry to TRX is not excused in such circumstances.

16. Notifications of Change

TRX shall notify Company of all notifications of change received by TRX relating to Entries transmitted by Company.

17. Payment for Services

Company shall pay TRX the charges for the services provided in connection with this Agreement, as set forth in Schedule E attached hereto. All fees and services are subject to change upon thirty (30) calendar days prior written notice from TRX to Company. Continued use by the Company of ACH origination services pursuant to this Agreement after notice of a fee change by the TRX shall be conclusive proof that the Company agrees to the new fee schedule and shall be bound by same. Such charges do not include, and Company shall be responsible for payment of, any sales, use, excise, value added, utility or other similar taxes relating to such services, and any fees or charges provided for in the agreement between TRX and Company with respect to the Account (the "Account Agreement").

18. Amendments

From time to time, TRX may amend any of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, including without limitation, any cut-off time, the definition of business day, and any part of Schedule A through E attached hereto. In the event that performance of services under this Agreement would result in a violation of any present or future statute, regulation or governmental policy to which TRX is subject, then this Agreement shall be amended to the extent necessary to comply with such statute, regulation or policy. Alternatively, TRX may terminate this Agreement if it deems such action necessary or appropriate under the circumstances. TRX shall have no liability to the Company as a result of such violation, amendment or termination. Such amendments shall become effective upon issuance of notice of such change by TRX or such later date as may be stated in Financial Institution's notice to Company.

27. Waiver

TRX may waive enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect TRX's rights with respect to any other transactions or modify the terms of this Agreement.
